Although growing tobacco is a rare sight in Blackwell, J. T. Fisher has no difficulty in raising a good crop in his back yard, as the pictures above indicate.

Fisher, who is 84, lives at 524 W. Oklahoma avenue. He was born in the tobacco country of Mason county, Virginia. He spent years working on his father's tobacco plantation near Point Pleasant, W. Virginia.

It was here that he learned the secret of raising tobacco successfully.

"Raising tobacco is not just a process of planting the seed in the ground and then setting back and watching it grow," said Mr. Fisher, "but entails a lot of hard work and painstaking care."

The ground for the tobacco in the Jones yard here was prepared by burning logs over the plowed ground and mixing the ashes with the dirt. Then the seed, which was obtained from a local grocer, was planted about the first of April, and the ground formed into hills.

After several month of weeding the plants, keeping off the harmful tobacco worm, and cutting off the little leaves, the tobacco begins to show light spots on the leaves. At this time the leaves are plucked and hung up inside a building to dry. (Note the lower picture.)

Later when the leaves have all turned brown they are "fired," or heated by a fire built under them. After further curing they are ready to strip and form into "hands," which is merely taking out the stems and putting them in small bundles.

Fisher, who does not use tobacco, sends these "hands" to his son C. E. Fisher of Audubon, Minn., who prefers the home grown variety of tobacco to the "dressed up" type. In turn he repays his father by sending him home cured meats every year.

J. T. Fishers To Celebrate Their 60th Wedding Anniversary Thursday

The Couple, Both Natives Of The South, Came To Blackwell About Twenty Years Ago; Were Reared With Large Families In Log Cabins.

On April eighth sixty years ago Miss Susanna R. Thomas, then sixteen years old, and Mr. J. T. Fisher were married in Thomas Ridge community in West Virginia, and to celebrate that occasion their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren will gather at their home, 524 West Oklahoma avenue, Thursday for an elaborate anniversary dinner and observance. A son, Mr. Everett Fisher, of Audubon, Minn., and family will be unable to attend.

Dinner will be served at one long table, colorful with bouquets of spring flowers, and places will be set for four daughters, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, Blackwell; Mrs. A. F. Bernider and Vertise Banner of Los Angeles, who arrived Sunday; Mr. A. A. Fisher of Wellington; and Mrs. E. R. Walcher of Wichita.

Other relatives will include Mr. and Mrs. Smith Roush and daughters, Gloria Ann and Maralee, of Ellinwood, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roush and daughter, Nancy Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Allen Walcher and children, Barbara Jean and Ernie Brock, of Blackwell, and Chester and Sue Ala Walcher of Wichita.

Mrs. Fisher was born on March sixteenth, eighteen hundred sixty-one in Thomas Ridge county, the county being named after her family. There were twelve children in the family and seven are still living. Mr. Fisher's birthplace is Mason county, Virginia. He was born February fourth, eighteen hundred fifty-four. He is one of fourteen children with nine still living.

For several years following their marriage the couple lived in a one room log cabin, where Mrs. Fisher rocked her first baby, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, in a sugar tree, which had been hollowed out. From there they moved to Sugar Camp Hollow in the same state, later moving to Argonia, Kans., in nineteen hundred and ten. They moved to Blackwell about twenty years ago and have resided at the above address since that time.

Although reared in a one room log cabin with a loft overhead for sleeping quarters to which they entered by a ladder, the fourteen children of the Fisher family were all well educated. Mr. J. T. Fisher taught school in Virginia for thirty years.

As a pastime during recent years he has constructed a miniature log cabin, symbolic of his childhood home, showing the one room and loft. The cabin has one small window, and an opening between two logs served as a window in the attic or loft. They slept under the beds as well as on them.

A number of fantastic events during the Civil war are vaguely remembered by the couple. Mrs. Fisher remembers of General Grant and his army stopping at their home for something to eat, and of her mother feeding them buttermilk. Relatives of both Mr. and Mrs. Fisher served in the war, one of his brothers enlisting at the age of sixteen and serving until the close of the war.

Mr. Fisher lived only a few miles from Point Pleasant, Va., where a part of the fighting took place, and he remembers hearing the guns and cannons.

They also can relate interesting stories of strifes with the Indians, and told how a chief, "Constock" and his son were shot down by settlers of the new territory and how they were buried under the steps of the courthouse. As a curse on the people the old Indian prophesied that that community would never prosper, which proved to be true, the couple agreed, the community being moved since the recent flood to higher ground.

It has been eight years since Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher and family have joined for a reunion, and the group are anticipating a grand time.

Dinner Sunday to Celebrate Their 64th Anniversary

Family Party Will Be Held Today For The J. T. Fishers

To celebrate the 64th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, which occurs on Tuesday, Mrs. J. B. Sheets will entertain at dinner Sunday with a family party in her home, 421 East Ferguson.

Spring flowers will be used for room and table decorations.

Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Fisher of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Walcher and daughter, Sue Ala, of Wichita; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Roush and children, Nancy and Suzanne, of Ponca City; and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Walcher and children, Ernie Brock, Barbara Jean, and Jo Ann.

Three other children of the couple, C. E. Fisher of Audibon, Minn.; and Mrs. A. F. Bernider and Mrs. W. R. Skalitsky, both of Los Angeles, will be unable to attend.

The Fishers were born within 10 miles of each other near Point Pleasant, W. Va., where they were married April 8, 1877.

Mrs. Fisher, who was Miss Susannah Thomas, celebrated her 80th birth anniversary March 16 and Mr. Fisher his 87th Feb. 4.

The couple lived in West Virginia until 1909 when they came to Argonia, Kans.

They have lived in Blackwell since 1918.

Mr. Fisher, now retired, was a farmer and veterinary.

AS THEY WERE 64 YEARS AGO—AND TODAY

SIXTY-FOUR YEARS have elapsed since the first picture, left, was taken of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma, soon after their marriage near Point Pleasant, W. Va. The picture on the right was taken at the time of the celebration of their 60th wedding anniversary. Their daughter, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, 421 East Ferguson, will entertain at dinner Sunday in celebration of their 64th wedding anniversary Tuesday.

Observe Diamond Wedding Anniversary

1937

Family Gathering At Home of Fishers, Wed Sixty Years

Of wide interest in the city and of supreme interest to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma avenue, was the gala celebration held in their home Thursday in observance of their diamond wedding anniversary.

At noon an elaborate luncheon was served to the guests, which included their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. All of their children were able to attend with the exception of a son, Everett Fisher, of Audubon, Minn.

Flowers decorated the home, and other appointments stressed a spring note in table arrangements, with a beautiful bouquet of gladiolus and daisies centering the table which was a gift from Hart's Flower shop. Mrs. John Zook sent them a beautiful orchid hydrangia plant.

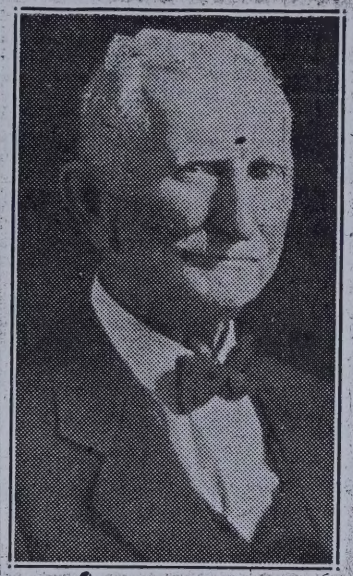
Guests attending the affair presented Mr. and Mrs. Fisher with an electric refrigerator. Those attending included their daughters, Mrs. J. B. Sheets of Blackwell, Mrs. A. F. Bernider of Los Angeles, Calif.; a son, A. A. Fisher, of Wellington, Kans.; and daughters, Mrs. E. R. Walcher of Wichita, Kans., and Mrs. Vertise Banner of Los Angeles, Calif.

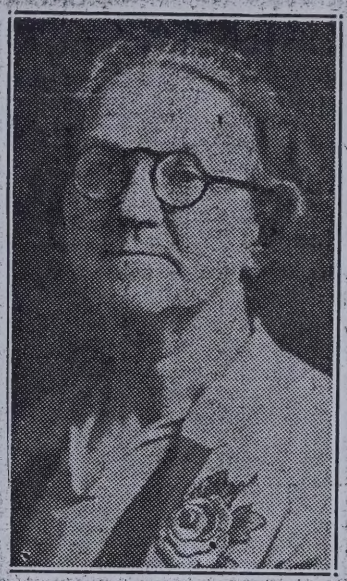
Others participating in the anniversary observance were: Mr. and Mrs. Smith Roush and daughters, Gloria Ann and Marilee, of Ellinwood, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roush and daughter, Nancy Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Allen Walcher and children, Barbara Jean and Ernie Brock, of Blackwell; Mrs. A. A. Fisher, of Wellington, Kans.; E. R. Walcher and Sue Ala and Chester, of Wichita, Kans.

The couple were united in marriage in a wedding ceremony of 60 years ago in Thomas Ridge community in West Virginia. Mrs. Fisher, who before her marriage was Miss Susanna R. Thomas, was 16 at the time of the wedding and Mr. Fisher was 23.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were born in Mason county. At the time of his birth on Feb. 4, 1854, and at the time of her birth on March 16, 1861, the county was in Virginia, but the state was divided on June 20, 1863, and the county was then in West Virginia. This was near Point Pleasant, where the Kanawha river flows into the Ohio and where one of the important battles of the Civil war was fought.

Mr. Fisher heard the guns and cannons of the battle, but was too young to participate in the fighting. However, his older brother, Jake Fisher, 85, now of Conway Springs, and another brother, David, now of Enid, were active in the ranks of the Confederate army. Fisher has a brother, Robert, of Milan, Kans., and two other brothers, George and Johnnie, both living in West Virginia.





Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher

He is a brother of Mrs. Emma Duffy, of Checotah, the mother of Charles B. Duffy, state senator of this county. There were 14 children in the Fisher family.

Mrs. Fisher has two brothers, Charles and Grif Thomas, and three sisters, Mrs. Blanch Pickens, Mrs. Myrt Sayre and Mrs. Med Peck, who all reside in West Virginia, and another brother, John Thomas, of Illinois.

The couple have six children, seven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher lived for several years in a 1-room log cabin where the first baby, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, was rocked in a sugar tree which had been hollowed out. From this community in West Virginia, they moved to Sugar Camp Hollow in the same state, later moving to Argonia, Kans., in 1909.

They came to Blackwell in 1918 and have resided at their present residence since that time. Mr. Fisher's occupations have been school teacher and farmer.

His hobbies are numerous for he delights in gardening, fishing, hunting and in carpenter work. In recent years he has constructed a miniature log cabin similar to his childhood home which shows one room and loft, with the cabin having only one window.

Mrs. Fisher's favorite pastime is piecing quilts and sewing.

Thursday, the 60th wedding anniversary of the couple, marked the first anniversary they have celebrated in eight years.

FISHER BODIES

There are some Fisher-bodies, they put in a car
But the ones that I think of, are not that by far
These are molded and shaped with curves and all such;
And on a car chassis they wouldn't do much.
They're not the ones that Harrison painted
And I don't think there's any of them that are Sainted.
They're the brook of Becky and a man named Tom
Not lauded in verse or aired out in song.
The bodies they have won't win the show prize
But they're Fisher-bodies - it shows in their eyes.

Stick Together Families

The stick-together families are happier by far,
Than the brothers and sisters who take separate highways are.
The gaddest people living are wholesome folks who make,
A circle at the fireside, that no power but death can break.
And the finest conventions ever held beneath the sun,
Are the little family gatherings, when the busy day is done.
There are rich folk, there are poor folk, who imagine they are wise,
And they're very quick to shatter all the little family ties,
Each goes searching after pleasures in his own selected way,
Each with strangers likes to wander and with strangers likes to play.
But it's bitterness they harvest and it's empty joy they find,
For the children that are wisest are the stick-together kind.
There are some who seem to fancy that for gladness they must roam,
That for smiles that are brightest they must wander far from home.
That the strange friend is the true friend, and they travel far away.
But the gladdest sort of people when the busy day is done,
Are the brothers and the sisters who together share their fun.
It's the stick-together family that wins the joys of earth,
That hears the sweetest music, and that finds the finest mirth.
It's the old home roof that shelters all the charm that life can give,
There you find the gladdest playground, there the happiest spot to live,
And O, weary wandering brothers, if contentment you would find,
Come you back into the fireside, and be comrades with your kin.

In 1943, Uncle Tom Fisher and Cousin Charles B. Duffy had a 4 page Fisher Family History mimeographed. It was very complete going to the third and fourth generations. I would like to see it reprinted and made up to date. They did not have the birth dates of all the aunts and uncles so I may not have the above names listed according to age. Uncle Bub was the oldest and my mother, Vena, the youngest.

Picture taken about 1915.

A Ft. Myers Photographer took the above old faded picture and did a remarkable reproduction job. The significant thing about the picture is that the hillsides are clear, having been hand mowed by scythes. This was first done by Grandfather Henry Fisher's 10 sons and later by Uncle Johnnie's 4 sons and all of us cousins who happened to be visiting there during the month of August, just before school. This practice has been abandoned and Clyde still mows the hill tops and as much of the hillside as possible.

Accept these pictures with our compliments and may you have a happy Reunion.

Dear Cousins:

The 8 pictures (Color) I took last September turned out so beautifully that Mildred and I thought all of you Fishers and especially those who have been familiar with this colorful old 400 acre hillside farm throughout the years, would like to see them. This will be done with off-set printing and we hope the color pictures will turn out in black and white satisfactorily. They are of the ancestral home of my Grandparents Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher, still in the family and owned by Clyde and Virginia Fisher. They have done a wonderful job of restoring the old home by keeping the original architecture in mind. The house was well preserved after at least 75 years of hard use. I was born in the old log house, now razed, June 19, 1893 and my sister Innez was the first born in the new or present house on August 31, 1895. We hope all of you will be privileged to visit this old home and farm some time.

When Grandfather Henry Fisher died in 1900, Uncle Johnnie Fisher took over the farm and a few years before he passed away, he sold the farm to his son Clyde, who still owns and operates it. The hills still produce abundant blue grass for pasture and Clyde has enough creek bottom land to keep a fine herd of White Face cattle.

None of the Fisher family still living can remember any of our ancestors farther back than my Grandparents Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher. All of their off-spring, 14 children including my mother and uncles and aunts, are now deceased. (listed below).Most of my first cousins remember our grandparents and the 14 uncles and aunts.

You may wonder just who is writing you -- I am your Aunt Vena Fowler's son, Roscoe. It is a problem for me to tell which generation I am talking about so let us call Grandparents Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher generation #1; my mother Lovena (Fowler), aunts and uncles the second generation and myself and my first cousins the 3rd generation -- not too many of us left. Your 1970 Fisher Reunion President, Dr. Stanley D. Fisher is one of the 4th generation, being a son of first cousin Franklin Fisher and grandson of uncle, Charles.

Last September 1969, my first cousin, Clyde Fisher and I went to the White Church Cemetery, Upper Flats, Mason County, W.Va. expecting to find the grave sites of our Grandparents, Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher. Instead, we found the grave site of our Great Grandparents, Andrew and Hannah Helper, parents of our Grandmother, Mary Jane Helper Fisher.

Our long time friends, Lon and Cora (Stewart) Roush who live nearby, assured us that our Grandparents Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher were both buried in the Pickens Cemetery about three miles away.

After taking the pictures of the Helper grave, shown on the left, we went to the Pickens Cemetery and took the picture of our Grandparents,Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher's burial place, shown below. We found the White Church Cemetery in fairly good condition. Lon Roush told us that there was a fund available to keep this Cemetery clean but he was unable to get anyone to do it. You can see that the Pickens Cemetery was badly in need of care but we were told that the Cemetery had been mowed for Decoration Day.

Clyde has promised to get his son, Bob, to help him mow and clean this year. We did not learn of any available fund for care of this Cemetery.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God's judgment on the wicked, 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and office.

FOR, behold, [a] the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all [b] the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be [c] stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall [d] leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that [e] fear my name shall the [f] Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 [g] And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the [h] law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him [i] in Horeb for all Israel, with [k] the statutes and judgments.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you [l] Elijah the prophet [m] before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and [n] smite the earth with [o] a curse.

In Memory Of
WILLIAM DALE ROUSH
Born on September 4, 1905
Died on June 16, 1987

William Dale Roush was born in Point Pleasant, West Virginia. After his parents divorce, Dale and his younger brother, Smith, were awarded to their father. They were later kidnapped by their mother when they fled down the Mississippi River. The family ended up in Blackwell, Oklahoma where Dale grew up.

After one year of college at Oklahoma A&M, Dale transferred to the University of Illinois where he was an All American from 1926-1928. His college football career was finally honored in 1949 when he became a charter member in the Football Hall of Fame. His love for football continued for the rest of his life.

On September 2, 1930, Dale married his wife Frances -- whom he had known since first grade. In the years following, Dale and Frances had two daughters -- Nancy and Suzanne. His career with Continental Oil took the family from Ponca City, OK to Great Bend, KS and Lance Creek, WY and finally to Lake Charles, LA from where he retired after a distinguished 30-year career.

Upon "retirement," Dale moved to Windsor Gardens in 1970. He continued to be actively involved in his community and church. He was recognized by his peers on many occasions, including the Lions of the Year Award, Optimist President, and Optimist Lieutenant Governor.

Dale's commitment to his building and neighbors was also strong. He was their building representative for 10 years. With a true "green thumb," he worked daily in the flower gardens, which were enjoyed by all.

He was more than a Grandpa to his daughters and their families. He was the first one on the doorstep to babysit or to be the resident Mr. Fix-it. He was always there when you needed him!

Dale Roush "lived love." A true family man, career man, and civic servant -- he will be missed by everyone he touched!

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Frances Ann Roush

Secretary, 94

DeMolays Entertain at Annual Sweetheart Ball

One of the highlights of the season for the younger set was held Friday evening when the Cheyenne chapter of DeMolay entertained at the annual Sweetheart dance in the Masonic temple ballroom. Red and white decorations carried out the Valentine motif and a huge lighted heart was suspended from the center of the ceiling.

Miss Weaver was attired in a gown of pink with metallic bodice and net skirt. She also was presented with a gold locket inscribed "DeMolay Sweetheart of 1951."

Her attendants were Jo Ann Christensen, who wore a red satin formal trimmed with plaid taffeta with overskirt of red net, and Miss Nancy Roush, who was attired in pale green marquisette.

Music for the formal dance was furnished by Cloyd Brown and his orchestra. The DeMolay Mothers club provided refreshments for the party.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Beautiful Thoughts

Beautiful thoughts, they come and go
Like tides of oceans that ebb and flow,
They bring a memory, a smile or tears,
They take us back to by-gone years
They bring again to us the dreams of long ago,
In fancy we can hear the songs we used to know,
When our hearts were young, and our love was new,
Beautiful thoughts come softly through.

My Prayer for Today

Dear Lord I pray,
Just for today,
Let me bring sunshine where shadows appear,
Where'er I be, help me to see
Some one to comfort and cheer,
This is my prayer,
Help me to share,
Somebody's sorrow, somebody's care,
Where'er I stray, dear Lord I pray,
Let me help someone, just for today.

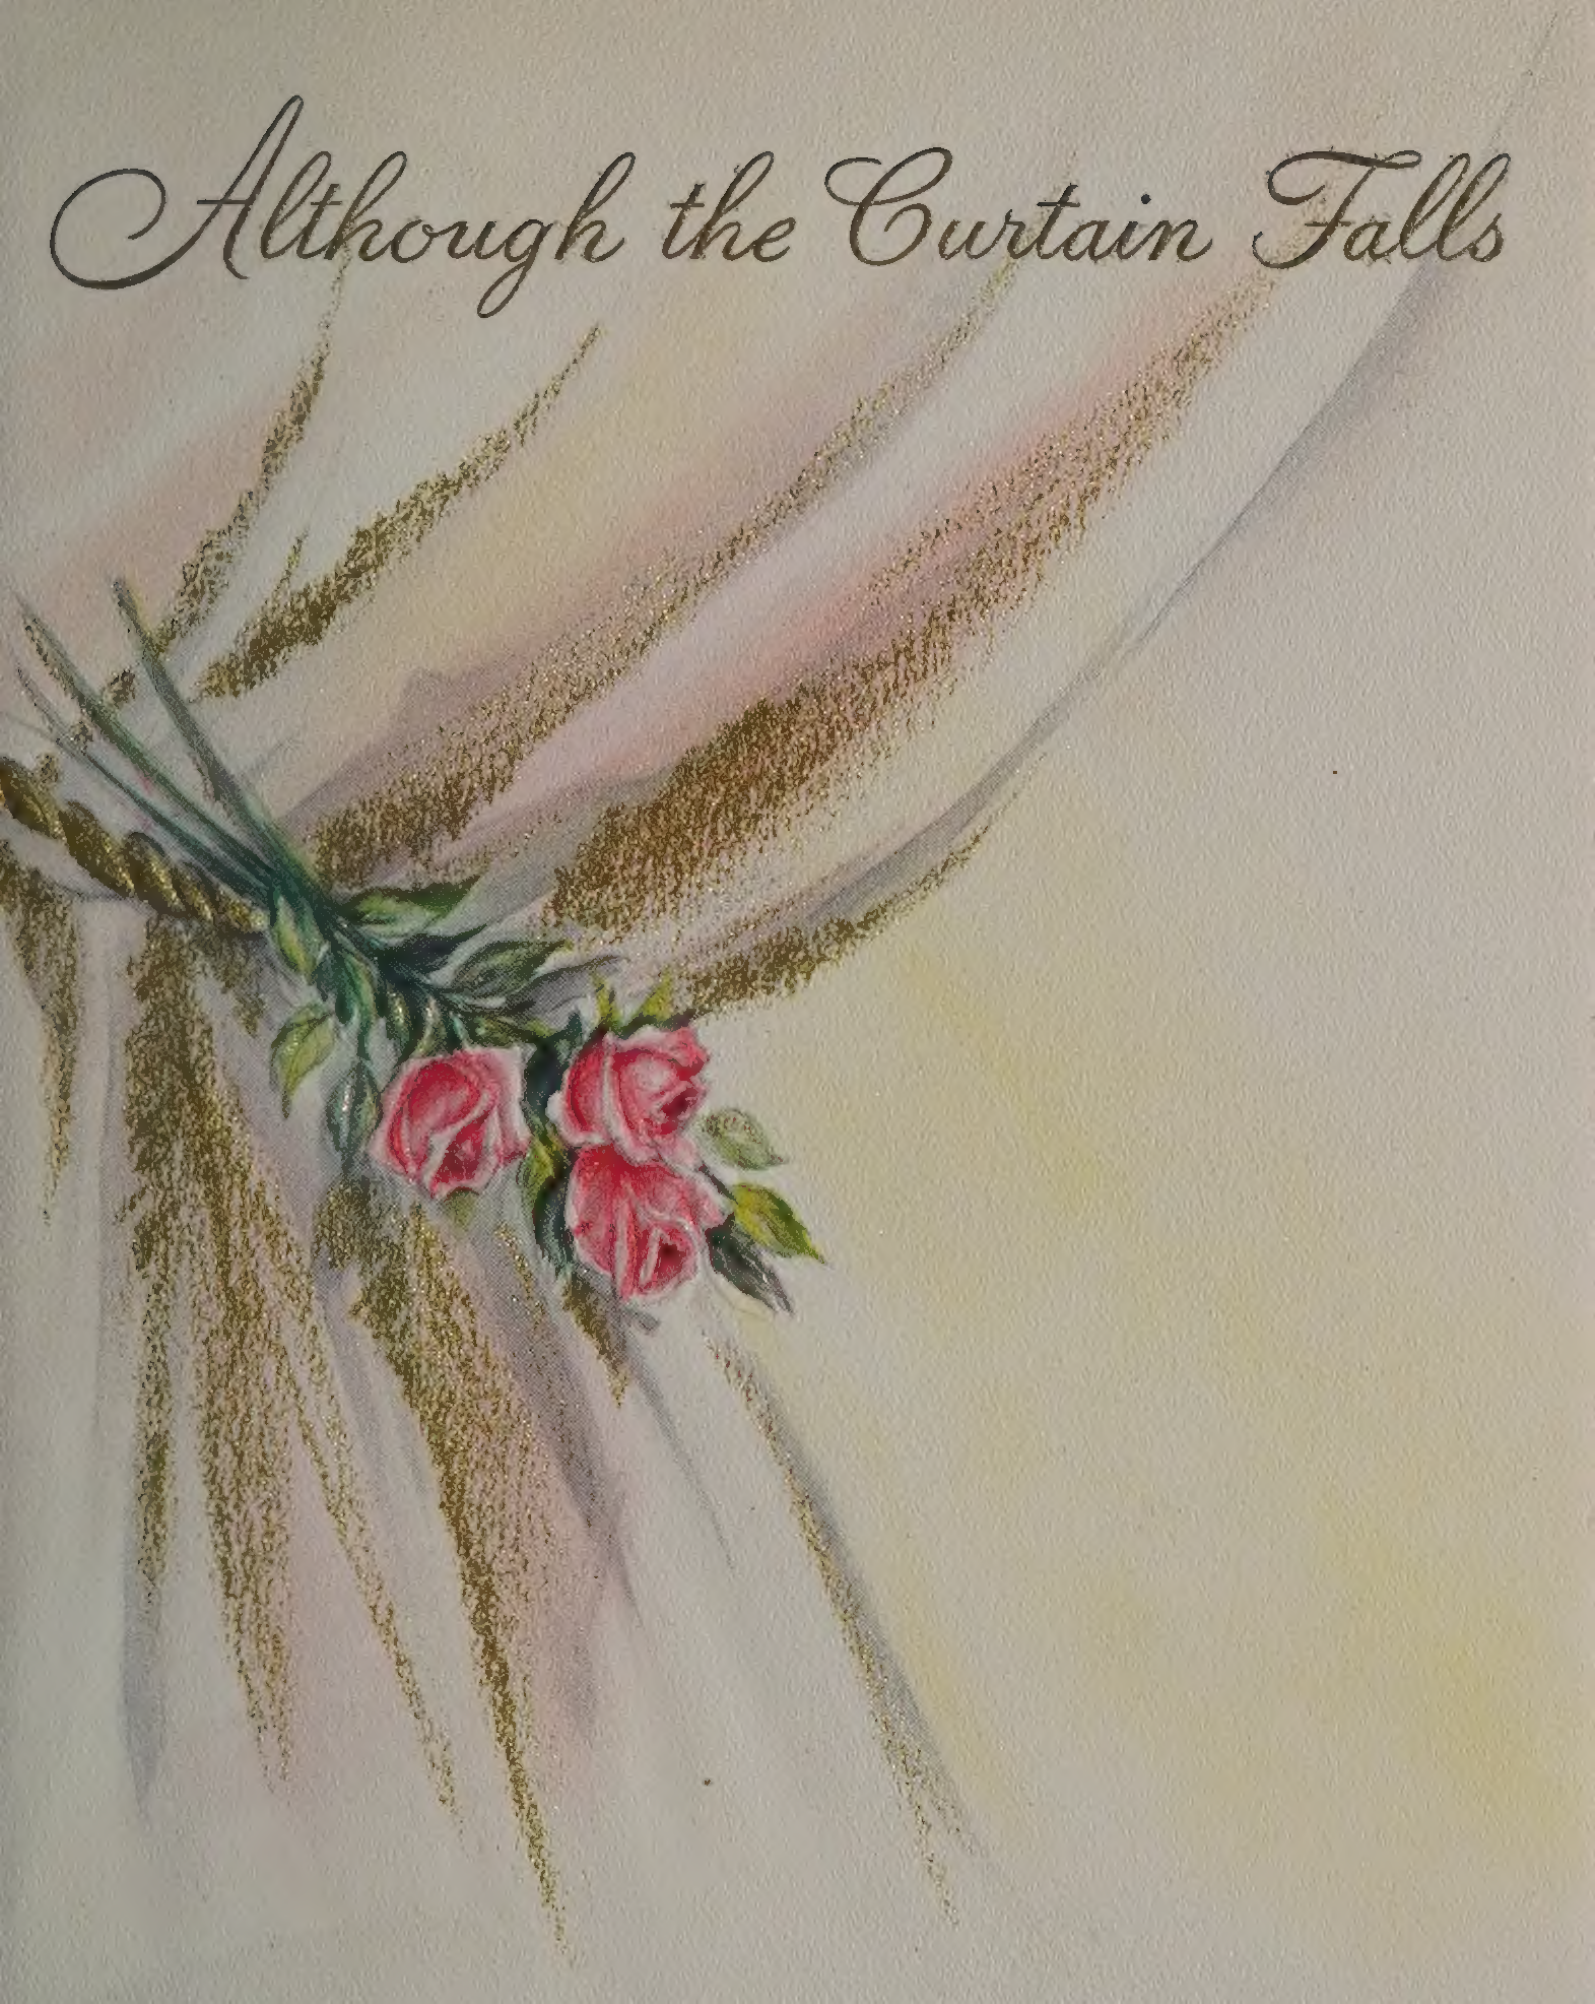
Although the Curtain Falls



There's nothing much that we can say,

When comes the dawn when skies are gray,

But having lived ~~those~~ those vivid hours

We know that the Almighty power,

Will ease the ache and fill the void

When we have Faith in our Good Lord.

Aunt Vertie.

There comes a time for all of us
When we must say good-bye
But faith and hope and love and trust
Can never, never die;
Although the curtain falls at last
Is that a cause to grieve ?
The future's fairer than the past
If only we believe
And trust in God's eternal care--
So when the Master calls
Let's say that life is still more fair
Although the curtain falls.

My dears:

So very sorry to hear of Mama Brock's sudden passing - However, now I can understand what a blessing it is to have them leave, without seeing them suffer.

It's hard at first to Understand but the way of the Lord is mysterious and I'm just now getting readjusted to life without "Pappy".

Hope to see you all in June. Luba, my companion, and I are driving back for short visits on Vacation. God Bless you all,

Hallmark

FISHER FAMILY TO HOLD ANNUAL REUNION

The annual reunion of the Fisher family will be held June 5 at the Park House in Wellington.

A sketch or narrative of the Helper family from pioneer days down to the present time, written by members of the family, follows:

Andrew Helper was born February 25, 1779 and his demise occurred February 25, 1854, or on the anniversary of his seventy-fifth year. Hanna (Utt) Helper was born Dec. 4, 1788, and passed away Jan. 24, 1875, at the age of 86 years, 1 month and 20 days, at the home of her daughter, Mary Jane Fisher, in Mason County, W. Va., with whom she had made her home for a number of years. As we all remember Mamma Helper, as we always called her, she was a great Bible reader and a devout Christian. These, our grandparents, were possibly married in 1802 as Mama frequently boasted of her marriage at the age of fourteen.

At the time of their marriage they no doubt were living in Venaugo County, Pa., and partially raised their family there before emigrating to Chester, Meigs County, Ohio. This change must have taken place near the year 1840 when William H. Harrison was elected president of the United States as I have heard my mother speak of living there at the time. Within a very few years they moved from Chester over into Mason County then Virginia, and made their home there, engaging in the weaver's business for a number of years, weaving double coverlets and all other kinds of weaving. From their union were born six children. Aunt Bettie Helper, the oldest, whom, I suppose, never left Pennsylvania and quite likely married near where she was born. She married William Crawford of Crawford County, Pa., and reared a family of eight children, three boys and five girls, viz: Robert, Elizabeth, Hannah, Mary, William, Sarah, John and Clara, all of whom are dead except John to whom I have written but received no reply. The second daughter of this union was Aunt Fannie Helper, who must have also married near where she was reared in Crawford County. She married James Proper and reared a family of ten children, four boys and six girls, viz: Andrew, Reuben, William, Leonard, Hannah, Ellen, Mary, Venie, Clarisi and Lucinda. The last, Lucinda, never married. This family is all dead with the exception of William, who went to the Black Hills of South Dakota and has not been heard from for 16 years, Leonard was last heard from in Nebraska. Uncle Jacob Helper, the only son and third child, married Nancy Lewis of Mason County and made his home in Roane County, Va.; to this union were born two daughters, Hannah E. and Cassie M. After a few years Aunt Nancy passed away and Uncle Jacob subsequently married Polly Hammock. To this union were born a boy and a girl, Henry and Sallie, both of whom are now dead. The fourth child of the family was Mary Jane Helper who married Henry Fisher of Mason County, Va., and to this union were born 14 children: Andrew H., Henry U., Charles B., Jacob W., James T., David W., Hannah E., Joseph A., Robert M., Mary L., John A., Emma F., George M., and Clarisa L. Six boys and four boys are still living. The fifth aunt, Rachel Helper, married Uncle David Fisher, a widower, and brother of our father, Henry Fisher, and reared a family of six children, three boys and three girls, David, Clarisa, Hannah, Mack, Adam and Emma. The sixth aunt, Clarisa Helper, married William Robinson and reared a family of four children, one boy and three girls, Franklin F., Sadie, Lyda and Willie A. Later Aunt Clarisa became a widow and married John McDermott, a widower, and to this union two children were born, Belle and Homer. The writer of this sketch has had the pleasure, at one time or another, of meeting and visiting for a short while at least all of those mentioned in this sketch. Many years ago Aunt Bettie and Aunt Fannie, mentioned above, visited our home while Mama Helper was still living and spent two or three weeks with their mother and sister, our mother. This was about 60 years ago and while we were all quite young. The writer of this sketch is the fifth son of the Henry Fisher family.—J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma St., Blackwell, Okla.
